Danielle Malchoff has been employed under an ANA grant as an ACF Program Manager, which is meant to modernize Port Graham Village Council’s office. She and Fran attended some meetings and workshops in Washington, D.C. recently.

Here is her Report:

The Administration for Children and Families held meetings from November 6th to November 9th, 2017 in Washington D.C. which Fran and myself were grateful to attend.

The first day was making sure all attendee’s had made it to the city and got checked in okay. They also held the Annual ACF tribal consultation at the same time. The first workshop I attended was surviving our first year as an ACF program manager in which we discussed some key information to know when you’re managing your grant, our experiences, and answering any questions we had.

During the afternoon I attended two classes; One class was ‘Program Integrity: Ensuring program/project funds’, this class helped greatly with understanding how funds are investigated in the Office of Inspector General through Audits, Evaluation, investigation and Counsel. The second class discussed ‘How to use Microsoft Excel to manage your project’ which we just shared Ideas in how we’ve all used this and templates to use to manage and organize.

On The third day we were able to listen to a cultural presentation and prayer by the people of Samoa with keynote speakers discussing trauma in tribal and urban communities. This reviewed how we, as people who’ve gone through trauma in our past and present, understand the impact of trauma and how to heal from it.

After lunch we were able to present our project in a poster board session.

This was an amazing experience, being able to share how far we’ve come in our project, and to give other communities an idea of an improvement they can do for their offices as well. Closing on the third day was listening to four young Native Americans about their projects and the big impact they’ve made in their communities.

On the final day I attended a two part session that discussed housing options for families that go through domestic violence. This was a great topic seeing the statistics and how we in our own communities can bring this to light. The last workshop I attended was time management for program managers. We all discussed the different programs that are out there to help us with our time management and it was turned into a group discussion on what tactics everyone uses and what programs they prefer.

We went into a general assembly for closing and we honored those who have fought for our country and thanked them all. The veterans honored us with a special prayer and that was the end of the 2017 Annual Grantee Meeting.

If you have any more questions or would like to learn more about our project with ANA you can contact me at the Port Graham Village Council. Thank you

Elders! Please help! We’re Looking for Place Names!

We have gathered a great number of place names, but some seem to be contradicting each other, and we’d really like to have all the names and spellings correct for future reference. Also, to get the correct pronunciations and spelling of each, we need an agreement of all concerned parties.

These are just a few that were found online; Surely, we can come up with some more! Please stop by the Village Council Offices, and talk with Tim Malchoff, as Chugachmiuts LEC, he’s in charge of putting together our Port Graham’s Elder list of place names.

This is not an entire list, just a an example of what we are looking for.

Homer Food Pantry

The Homer Food Pantry is always accepting new applications for monthly food baskets that include fresh produce, baked goods and bulk dry goods. It had been pointed out to Sharon that some people aren’t aware of this. The process is to fill out the form with CHR Daryl (10-12 or 1-2 Mon-Fri.), so they know how many in your household and any specific needs; baskets are made upon the 3rd Mon. morning of the month and shipped over "space available" so it could be on one of several flights that afternoon; you can pick up your basket at the air strip, and anyone who notices a box can feel free to pass the word so that the family knows it’s there.

The Food Pantry is always happy to take feedback on how to improve this process if you see a problem. They are at 235-1968.
Hello! My name is Sharon Whytal, I'm delighted to be joining the Chugachmiut team and enjoyed visiting with everyone in Port Graham when I came in September and October. I am enjoying the journey we are all on together in this life and want to focus on violence prevention. I know we all want Port Graham to be safe.

As a survivor of family violence in my own childhood, I know that families can be complicated--and, we love them! I love the brain research that keeps showing what we thought all along: we can focus on our strengths and create healthy pathways, even when difficult things happen to us; healthy relationships heal us.

I met some of you when I worked for Public Health --I have lived in Homer for over 30 years and I love this bay and all the communities here. My interests include kayaking, hiking, fishing, wild crafting with plants and singing; I spent much of this past summer out with my partner Brent on the Bay or in Prince William Sound, and we enjoyed eating wild foods.

Alaska once again celebrated October as Domestic Violence Awareness month. Danielle from Chugachmiut visited and suggested we all wear purple on Friday, Oct. 20 to show our support, and post a photo on Facebook!

Domestic violence is a pattern of behaviors that adults or adolescents use against their intimate partners or former partners or family members to establish power and control. We know that it happens in every community and affects people of all genders and ages. But prevention is possible! Together, we can make sure everyone understands how they can take action to promote safety, respect and equality to stop domestic violence before it happens.

In Port Graham, Beth Benson and Sharon Whytal (new Tribal Advocate) are our regular Chugachmiut resources.

Sharon says that healthy relationships are the key to preventing all violence. Sharing healthy activities, meals and fun is the best way to empower ourselves or to heal from the difficult things that can happen to all of us in life. Please get in touch or stop her on the road walking sometime--she visits Port Graham every other week.
